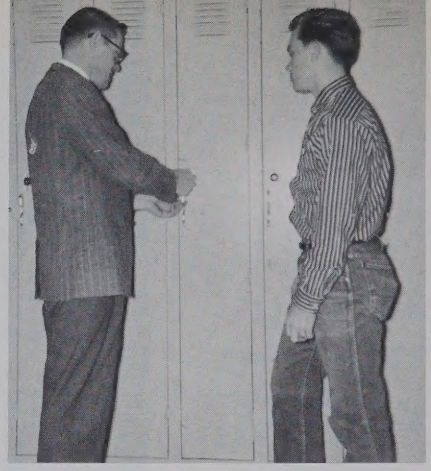
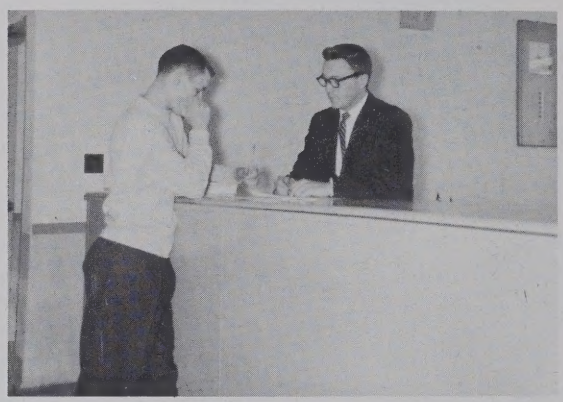
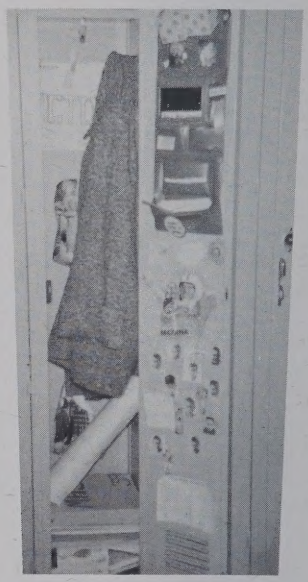
School activities actually began before school started! The football team and the Marching Band had been practicing since the middle of August for the oncoming football season. The team played its opener at Wadsworth; and even though we were defeated 6-0, we still look forward to a successful season.





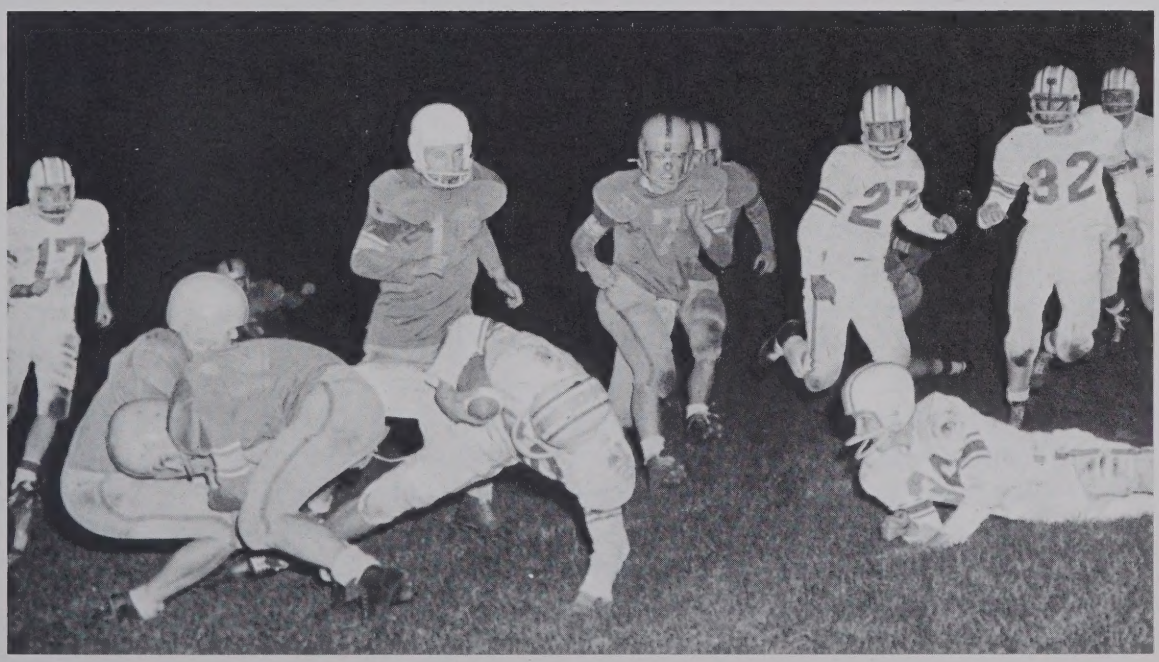


As usual, the first few days were hectic, with the ever-present locker problems and schedule changes. The sophomores proved true to form with their looks of bewilderment, characteristic of a class beginning its first year at M. H. S.

For the first time in our history, free MEDINAMITES were distributed following the assembly held on the first day of school.

Inspired, either by the long victory drought or the colossal pep rally last night, the football team proved too much for the outclassed Dukes.

Brown, Swingle, and Wells crossed the goal to make the score 16 to 6. With the first victory under our belts we are counting the days till we meet Fairview.



At three o'clock today our vivacious cheerleaders called us to assembly. In an attempt to inspire or scare us on to another victory, they depicted cheerleaders from different parts of the world.

As a result of crowd-backing and hard work our team proved tonight that the Wellington victory was no fluke, for they combined an outstanding offense with a solid defense, tonight, to defeat the Fairview Warriors. Medina scored three times as Swingle, Dudas, and Fenn electrified the fans with their devasting plays to make the score 18-12.

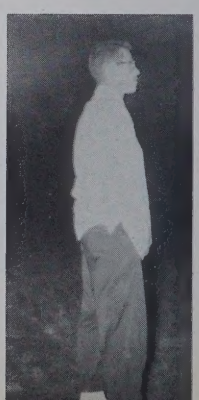
September 20th, I journeyed with the Marching Band to the Akron Rubber Bowl for the annual Acme-Zip game. We were asked to put on a show along with bands from Tallmadge, Coventry, Sebring and Alliance. I'm sure our band will never forget the outstanding performance of the famous Massillon High School Swingsters, nor will the spectators forget the Gershwin Show as rendered by our Musical Bees.

Our new head football coach, Jim Currens, seems to be all fired up with spirit and enthusiasm and is doing a fine job of sparking enthusiasm within the squad.

Mr. Currens began his athletic career as an All-State Halfback during his senior year in Loudonville, Ohio. In addition to football he played guard on his high school basketball team and second base on the baseball team. Currens was also an outstanding member of the track team, taking part in the 100 yard dash, pole vaulting, and hurdles.

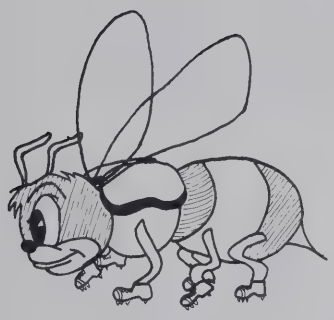
He chose to enter the coaching field while at Baldwin-Wallace where he was again active in football and track, and added wrestling.

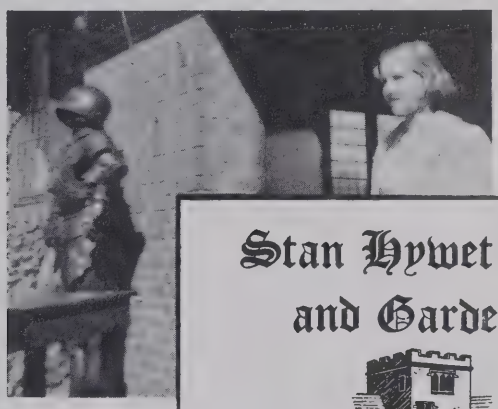
In addition to his coaching duties at Medina, Mr. Currens instructs boys physical education classes and handles Drivers Education work.



Twenty-five G.L.C. girls were snatched out of bed this morning between five and seven to begin their annual initiation. All of the new members were blindfolded and dragged to breakfast at the home of Norma Lehman. During the day the girls had to be very friendly with a "Hi" for everyone they met. This school spirit carried over to our rousing pep assembly in the afternoon, and migrated with us to North Olmsted for the game this evening. The running and plunging Bees tingled all over with that unfamiliar sensation of being in a two-way tie for first place with Oberlin in the Southwestern Conference as a result of winning a 14-0 upset.

After the game, G.L.C. continued its initiation at the home of Linda Kolb; and, from the rumors, I understand some of the new members weren't too happy.





Today, September 23, the senior English classes had the privilege of visiting Stan Hywet, an American version of the English castle. F. A. Seiberling, a rubber pioneer, built the hall in Akron and patterned it after Ockwell's Manor in England.

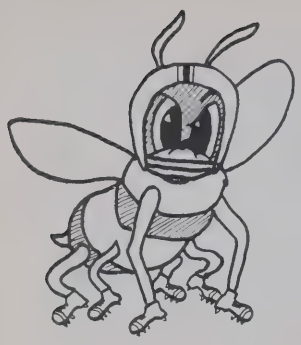
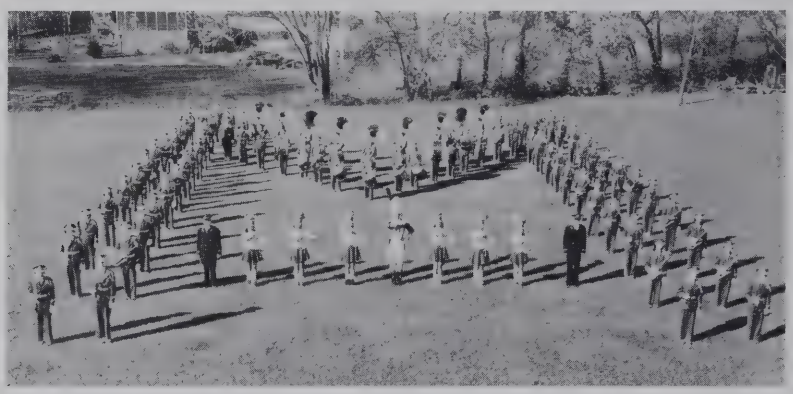
Medina's football season couldn't have been the big success it has been up to this point without the help of our fine backfield coach, Rolland Platz. Coach Platz gained some of his athletic experience while in high school at New Philadelphia and Midvale, where he was an outstanding athlete in football, baseball, and basketball. After high school, Coach Platz attended Baldwin-Wallace and Kent State, where he again was active in football and varsity baseball. His teaching career began at Dundee where he taught biology, bookkeeping, sociology, and economics along with coaching baseball, and basketball. Spending four years at Brunswick, he taught business law, bookkeeping, first aid, and health; and he coached basketball for four years and saw duty as varsity baseball and assistant football coach.



The "Beehive" was buzzing today, as the "rags-to-riches" Bees prepared to tangle with the Westlake Demons. The G.L.C. was also buzzing as it humorously predicted a victorious outcome of the game with a take-off on a well-known recording of a "hillbilly" witnessing his first football game. Unfortunately, the Bees' winning streak was broken in an exciting, slam-bang contest. The game was much harder played and closer than the final score 30-16 indicated, with breaks playing a big part in three of the six touchdowns marked up by both teams. Next Friday will be the Homecoming game against Bay. There is no doubt that the Bees will go all out to blast the "Rockets."



With the anticipation of Homecoming the band had to turn its thoughts to the third annual Medina County Bandorama.

Tonight, along with seven other bands, our band presented a half-time show entitled "Sacks Appeal." Under the direction of guest conductor, Ernest Manring, the seven bands combined to play "Stars and Stripes Forever" and "The Victors" for the finale.

To conclude the evening, the band and their dates held a party in the cafeteria.

Drum major Charlie Rolling and his majorettes Judie Linder, Sandy Spencer, Nancy Smith, Donna Hipp, Brenda Hubal, and Marcia Clark.

Working together for a successful year, the Senior Council, officers, and advisors have planned many fund-raising activities. You can usually see a senior selling dinner tickets, candy, or cards to help supply money for his New York trip.

Something new has been added to senior pages in the form of descriptive paragraphs that will replace the senior directory.

As you will soon notice, it will be hard for you to forget your friends' birthdays again, for along with the pictures and paragraphs are the birthdates of each senior.

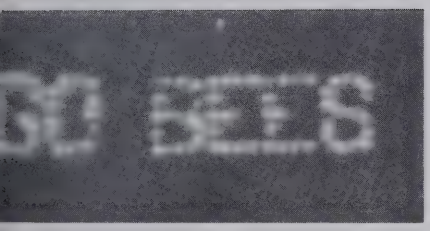
Today will long be remembered in the hearts and minds of three lovely senior girls. Jeanne Kubis was chosen by our football team to reign over the gala Homecoming festivities next Friday. Joanne Bushman and Becky Blanchard were tapped to complete the Queen's court.

Bursting at the seams with happiness, they cannot contain their joys and are quick to call home to tell mother.

This picture was taken during the Westlake pep assembly. The Y-Teens made a long charm bracelet with each charm representing one of our football players.



The band, as usual, had its problems to iron out. Here they are seen during one of the many painstaking practices.

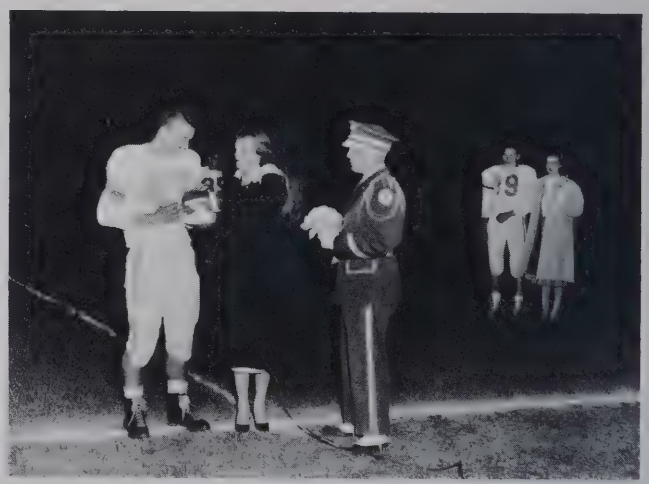
Homecoming

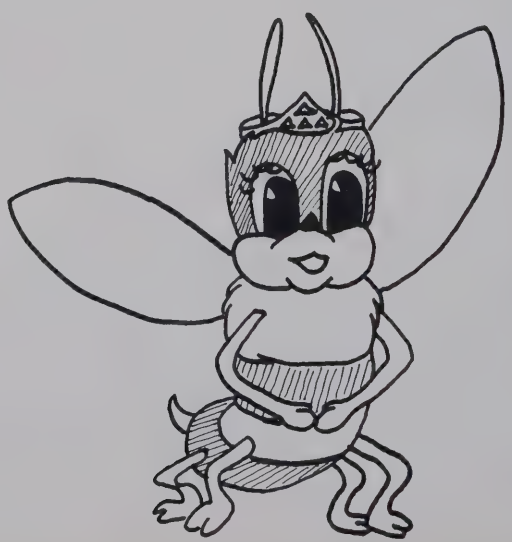
Dreams certainly came true for one of the most splendid Homecomings ever.

Festivities began at 2:00 o'clock with the parade which included the mayor, school officials, Queen Jeanne Kubis and her attendants, football squad, Marching Band, and the student body. The queen and her court carrying lovely nosegays rode on the seniors' float whose theme was "Victory." This float was followed by the cleverly constructed floats of the juniors and sophomores.

Prior to tonight's game the royal court and floats were paraded around the field for the viewing pleasure of the many fans. The Marching Band presented one of its most outstanding pre-games which ended in a fanfare introducing, Jeanne, Becky Blanchard, and Jo Bushman escorted by Norm Goulding, Bob Swingle, and Jerry Condren.

With warm wishes for a victory, Jeanne presented Norm with the football which was predestined to bring them luck.

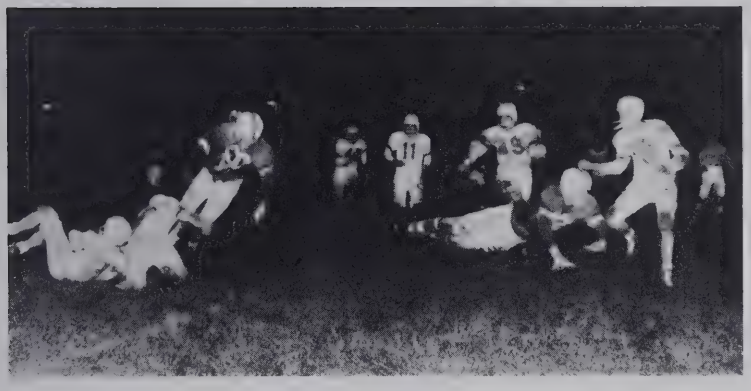




Bees Apply 30-0 Homecoming Sting

It was a beautiful homecoming at the Medina stadium Friday night. The weather was beautiful, the music of both bands was beautiful, the parade floats were beautiful, and it goes without saying that Queen Jeanne Kubis and her attendants were extra special beautiful. Even the blocking and tackling of the Bees was beautiful.

Although neither team penetrated very deeply into enemy territory during the first quarter, the twelve minutes were filled with thrill after thrill. During the second quarter, Swingle knifed off right tackle for seven yards and then crashed through center, diving the last three yards through the air into the end zone for the first touchdown. The Bees were off to the races.



The band's superb halftime show featured selections from outstanding movies. It was impressively beautiful when the stadium darkened and the huge bells of the sousaphones lighted up, spelling M-E-D-I-N-A, while the band played the Alma Mater.

The Bees fairly wore down the opposition in the second half. Touchdowns were scored by Swingle, Brown, and Wells, making the final score Medina 30—Bay Village 0.

Following this outstanding game parents, students, and alumni attended the dance in the gym which was filled with heavenly decorations. Queen Jeanne was officially crowned by Norm, as the Stardusters softly played, "If Dreams Come True." The strains continued as the football squad and their dates traditionally began the long-to-be-remembered dance which brought a beautiful end to Homecoming of 1958.

Squeals of laughter greeted the Letterman's Club in pep assembly this afternoon. It will be hard to forget the imitations of "Cheerleader" Stockman; "Fanny Farmer" Hamrick; "Howard Claggett" McCarthy; "Coach Currens" Wells, and "Slavedriver Stacy" Canfield.

Squalls of rain greeted the team tonight but their spirit wasn't dampened as they met the Oberlin Indians in the battle of the year. Even though the final score was 8-8, the Bees had handed Oberlin the first mar on their otherwise perfect record in what must be considered a major upset.

The following week we proved ourselves qualified to meet Rocky River in the championship game, by coming from behind to defeat Olmsted Falls, 30-20.

Also today the student body was entertained by a strumming performance by Mr. Banjo.

Today I cast my votes for my favorite candidates in our mock election sponsored by the civics classes. The voting booths were in the main lobby and sample ballots were made available for every student.

Preceding this election, in an assembly, some of the candidates gave campaign speeches and told us about the fundamentals of democracy. Among our visitors were William Ayres, John Brown, Charles Mapes, and Charles Courtney.

The Republicans won by a landslide as a remarkable total of 96 per cent of the student body turned out to cast their votes.

A bubbling witch's pot greeted the student body this afternoon as several lovely witches tried to brew up a victory. The ingredients were spirited rooters, music, cheerleaders, coaches, and players.

Unfortunately, the brew wasn't potent enough, for Medina fell prey to River, 51-12. This loss dropped the Bees into third place in the Southwestern Conference, the highest the Bees have finished in several years.

Not to be outdone because of Halloween, the band followed true to form with a dazzling half-time show. Featuring special lighting effects, the majorettes performed in the "dark" with their fluorescent hats and batons. Another unusual number was the band vocalizing to "Silvery Moon." As a ghostly climax, a fluorescent skeleton was assembled to the tune of "Dry Bones."

Raising over eight hundred dollars for instruments and uniforms was the Tag Day achievement of the Marching Band. This is how it was done.

Ron Popiel holds his prize-winning cherry pie that he baked in our annual contest. Runners-up were Bob Molnar and Ethel Freese.

The class of 1960 spent the majority of its time working in the concession stand and planning for the Junior-Senior Prom. It was an eventful year for them as they received their class rings, produced a beautiful Homecoming float, and became well-adjusted in their second year of high school. They were under the guidance of Mr. Showalter, Mrs. Teagarden, Mr. Demuth, Miss Farmer, and Mr. Brewer.

The junior class officers are Sally Schmidt, Vice-President; Hal Nichols, President; Shirley Jones, Secretary; Bill Batchelder, Student Council Representative; and Cynthia Wildman, Treasurer.

Some worked and some relaxed as the juniors prepared their homecoming float at the Fair Grounds.

The annual football banquet was attended by over four hundred persons, the largest crowd ever attending such an event. These people gathered to pay tribute to the team that compiled the best green and white record since 1952. The banquet was sponsored by the Rotary and Boosters Clubs. First-year players were presented with letters, while second year letter winners were awarded gold footballs. Four players won their letters for the third consecutive year and were presented small trophies. Also presented trophies were four seniors who had not accumulated enough playing time to earn a letter.

Third Row: Burton, Smith, Palker, Oberholtzer, McCarthy, Hamrick, Purdum, Fodor, Grey, McClain, Sorensen.
Absent: Dudas, Freese.

The big moment came when the trophies for the most outstanding performances were presented. Those receiving trophies were Darrel Ruder, outstanding freshman; Jerry Condren, best defensive player; Ron Brown, most improved player, and Bob Swingle, most valuable player.

The team presented gifts to all of the coaches.

Bob Swingle was chosen to the Southwestern All Conference team as an offensive halfback, while Ron Brown, Jerry Condren, and Norm Goulding were chosen to the defensive team. Walt Chidsey received honorable mention.

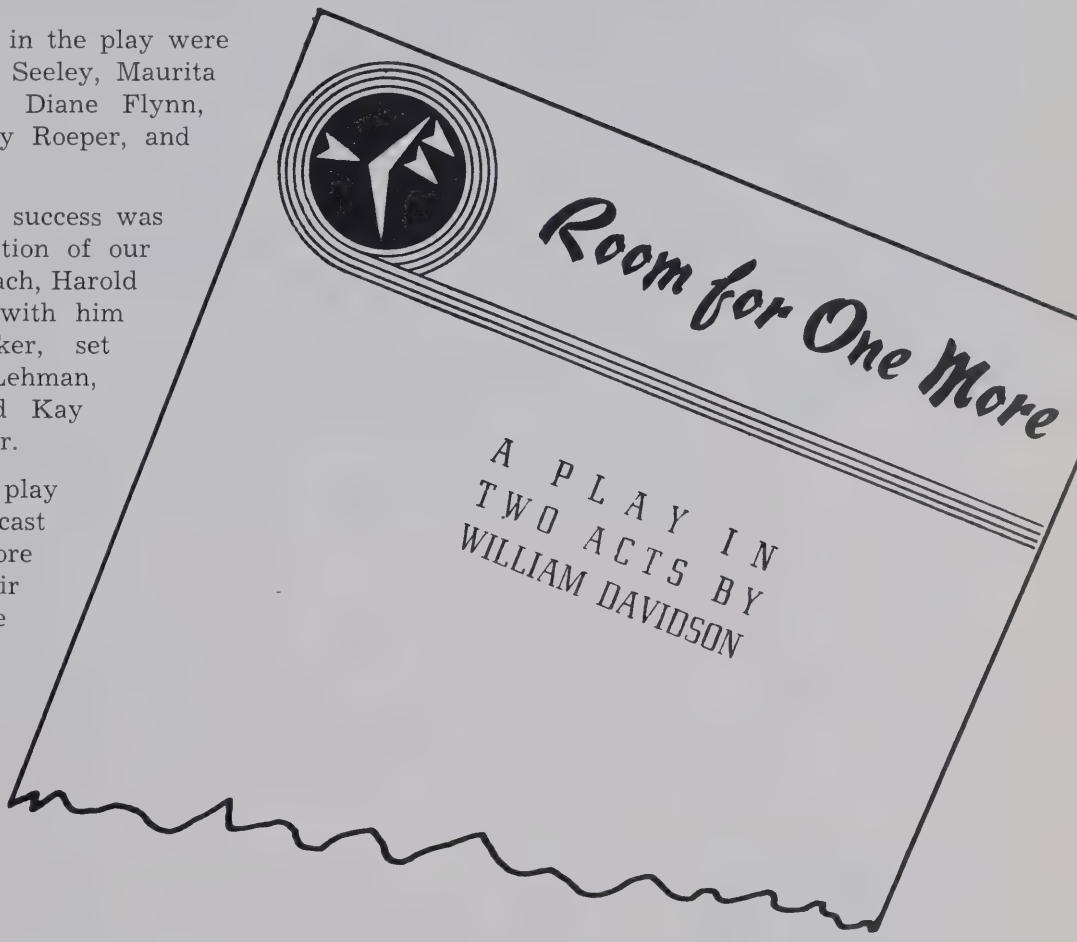
Congratulations to the Dramatics Club cast and crew for their presentation tonight of "Room For One More." The play concerned itself with the Rose family who lived in the "Pumpkin Shell" on the New Jersey coast.

Featured in the cast were Bette Blakslee as mother, Brian McCarthy as Joey, and Jeanne Kubis and Tom Sigafoos as two of the adopted children.

Others taking part in the play were Greg Winter, Sharole Seeley, Maurita Patry, Nancy Smith, Diane Flynn, Diana Cowling, Randy Roeper, and Kay Orr.

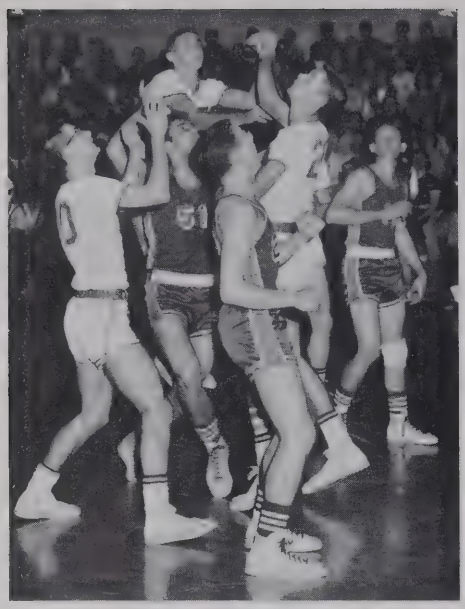
Much of the play's success was due to the fine direction of our newly hired drama coach, Harold Showalter. Working with him were John Insprucker, set supervisor; Norma Lehman, student director; and Kay Whisler, stage manager.

To publicize the play this past week, the cast and crew members wore armbands giving their on-stage or backstage titles.



Mr. Arbuckle presented a most entertaining and amusing assembly about his travels told in story form.

The student body inspired by Mr. Demuth and the MEDINIAN staff, brought about a most successful magazine sales campaign. Floyd Barr led the way as high salesman.



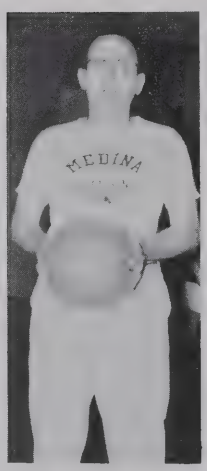
Our basketball team got off to a rousing start as we defeated Leroy and ran away from Fairview before being stopped by North Olmsted on their floor.

The Bees delighted the home crowd in their 1958 debut by knocking off a tough Leroy squad, 55-43.

We had a relatively easy time with Fairview, as Paul Bricker led the well-balanced offense with 14 points.

Our unmarred record didn't last long, however, as the North Olmsted Eagles ran away from a forty-five point third-quarter tie, to win 63-53.

The junior Bees had a little rougher time of it, only being able to defeat Leroy before being knocked off by Fairview by one point, and by North Olmsted.



Mr. Augie Rios, our popular varsity basketball coach, teaches sociology and psychology. Coach Rios has been interested in sports since his high school days at Akron Central where he played baseball and basketball. In college at Ohio Wesleyan, Mr. Rios received a physical education honorary and was freshman baseball coach. Before coming to Medina Coach Rios taught at Highland and in Delaware County. While at Highland he had a very successful career, winning three county championships in both basketball and baseball, and one in football. "Coach" leads a busy life in addition to teaching and coaching, for he is the Medina Recreation Director, and is associated with the YMCA in Akron.

Mr. Fish, a Swiss bell ringer from Columbus, performed for our student body and faculty. He presented an unusual and interesting program for the Christmas season.

Medina got back to their winning ways this week, as the Bees smacked down Westlake and Olmsted before being edged by Bay, in the final minutes of play.

Neither Westlake nor Olmsted Falls could give the Bees very much trouble, as we coasted to our third and fourth wins behind the sharpshooting of Paul Bricker and Bob Swingle. Olmsted Falls was able to master Medina's zone defense for a total of only thirty-five points, while Westlake rallied for forty-three. Medina scored fifty-eight and fifty-nine points respectively.

Medina held the lead over Bay for the first three quarters, but Bay's great height advantage finally caught up to us in the final minutes of play. The talented Rockets remained undefeated as they edged the Bees 51-48.

The reserves also got back on to the winning trail by trouncing Westlake, Olmsted Falls and Bay Village. Led by Bill Gardner and Jim Lance, the sharpshooting J-V's rallied to win 46-29, 50-35, and 41-26 respectively.

Mrs. Schafer and Miss Jones took the bookkeeping classes to the Federal Reserve Bank in Cleveland. Banking procedures were highlighted as the point of interest.

Tony Kovar, one of our talented custodians, takes a short break from work for pleasure. Tony delighted the student body with a short but entertaining performance during a pep assembly.

The large sophomore class adapted themselves well to their new surroundings and quickly became co-operative members of our school. Within the next two years we have hopes for a most productive and prospering class.

Their original Homecoming float was the first to be completed and carried the members of the football squad.

Piloting the sophomore class this year were: Miss Allen, Mrs. Neptune, Mrs. Hergenrader, Mr. Schultz, and Mrs. Schafer.

The officers of the sophomore class are Tom Morton, Treasurer; Marsha Hyatt, Student Council Representative; Bob Whitman, Vice-President; Jan Clement, Secretary; and Tim Davis, President.

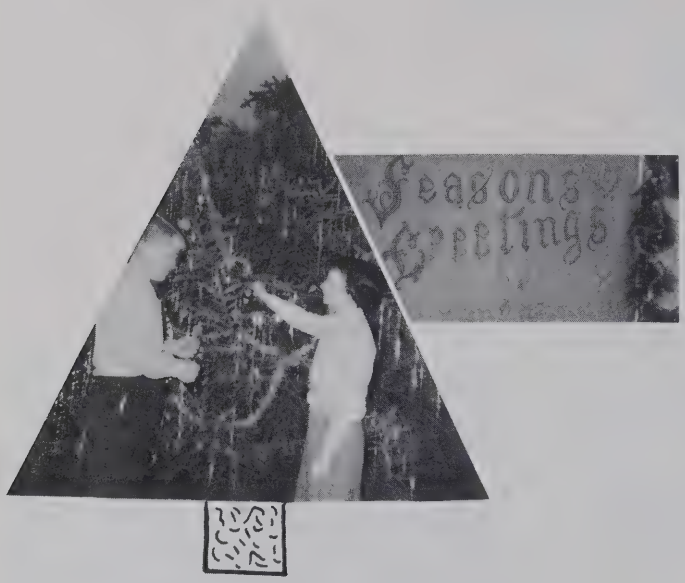
. . . we would be conference champs, but we were in third place. If the sophomores had had their way this trophy would now grace our display case.

Well-attended and thoroughly-enjoyed was the Holiday Hop held in the gym this evening.

Sponsored and planned by the Student Council, the gym was decorated with a winter scene featuring cotton snowmen, while the lobby was vividly dressed with a huge tree and colored lights.

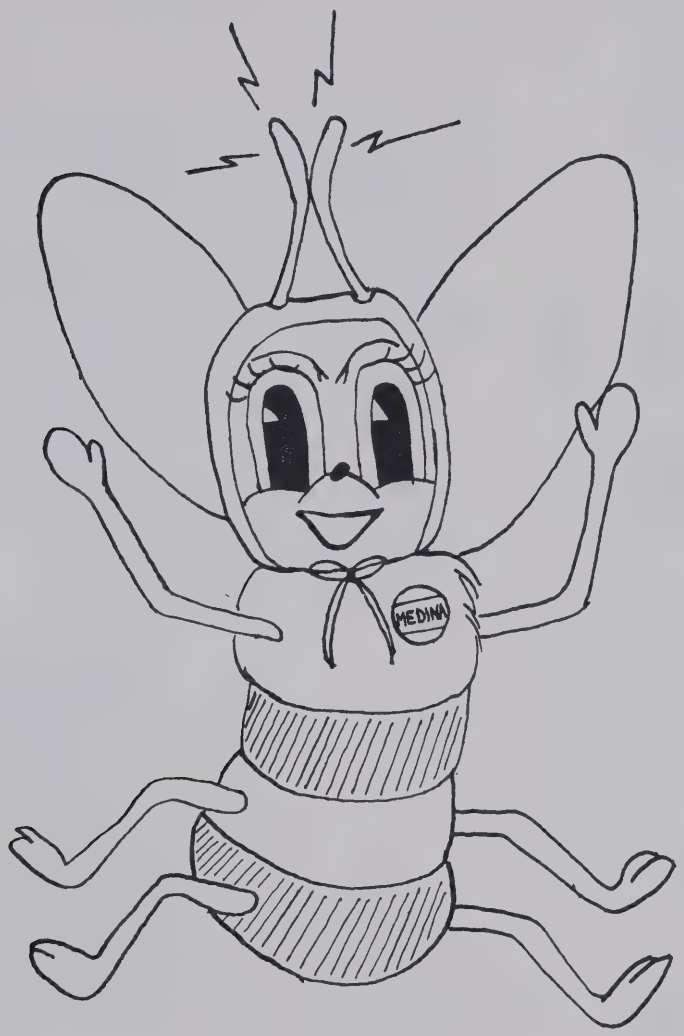
One of the highlights of the evening was the awarding of door prizes won by Jeanne Kubis and Rog Canfield.



Along with the Christmas spirit came Christmas decorations, with each homeroom entering the decorating contest.

A last-minute decorating job on the part of Mr. Showalter's room took top-place while second and third honors went to Mr. Dague's and Mr. Dailey's homerooms.

Medina reigned as Holiday Tournament champion for the second straight year tonight, as they defeated the Bucks from Buckeye 65-50. Buckeye had earned the chance to shoot for the championship by a last minute blitz of Highland in the first game Friday.



The Bees turned back a stubborn team from Brunswick on the strength of Paul Bricker's thirty points. Nine Bees joined in the scoring as Medina ran up its highest score so far this season. By coincidence, Brunswick's score is also the highest made against us so far this year. The final score was a 76-65 victory.

The Bees got another fine scoring performance from Bricker Saturday in the championship game with Buckeye, but this time he was ably assisted by Jim Wells, Bob Swingle, Rog Canfield, and Jerry Condren. Buckeye had trouble mastering Medina's defense and lost, 65-50.

After the long lay off over the Christmas vacation, the Bees came back raring to go and pushed over Oberlin, Rocky River, and Fairview, before bowing to North Olmsted.

Led by Paul Bricker, the Bees hit hard and fast and then coasted to their third straight victory and seventh in nine games as they defeated Oberlin 45-35.

Rocky River was the next unfortunate victim of the Bees as we combined a sharp offense with a solid defense to lead throughout the game in a 61-50 victory.

Fairview played the part of a perfect host as they bowed to Medina 70-57. Paced by Paul Bricker and Jerry Condren, who had a perfect night in shooting, the Bees ran their winning streak to five in a row.

In the battle of second place, North Olmsted's distinct height advantage played the major role in the Bees' defeat. Led by Dan Stadnik the Bees held leads of 23-22 at half and 29-28 at the third quarter stop, only to be jinxed in the fourth quarter to go down to a 41-36 defeat.

A large blue crystal, seemingly suspended from mid-air, over the center of the gym floor, provided crystal magic for all who attended the Y-Teen Crystal Ball. Dreamy music by Al Day and his orchestra drifted throughout the gym, projecting rhythm into 150 pairs of dancing feet.

Queen Jean Graff, escorted by Jerry Condren, looked radiant along with her at- Deanne Curtice, escorted by Rog Canfield, and Henrietta Gayer, escorted by Franchot Ballinger.

Medina tuned up for their home clash with Bay Village by knocking over Westlake and Olmsted Falls.

The Bees never trailed as they defeated the Westlake Demons for the second time this year, to the tune of 56-44.

Medina won its eleventh game of the season at the expense of the Olmsted Falls Bulldogs. Led by a torrid shooting performance by Paul Bricker, the Bees held quarter leads of 16-8, 34-21, and 46-36, before coasting to a 66-50 victory.

Out-shot, out-rebounded, and out-hustled, the thoroughly out-played Rockets went down to their first league defeat of the season as the Bees put out a tremendous team effort to the tune of a 58-50 victory.

The upset-minded Bees pulled off another one as they defeated Wadsworth 52-46, the first time in seventeen years.

The J.V.'s also got hot to the tune of four straight victories. Art Stockman, Jim Lance, and Bill Gardner paced the victories.

Medina, after pulling two upsets and running away from Oberlin, was upset themselves by a stubborn Rocky River team.

With Jim Wells, Paul Bricker, and Bob Swingle scoring nineteen, seventeen, and fifteen respectively, Medina had little trouble in posting their thirteenth win in sixteen games. Oberlin had a very serious and obvious problem with Medina's defense for they were able to score only forty-two points, compared with the Bees' sixty-seven.

The Bees, hoping to finish the season in a second place tie, were upset by Rocky River, 40-38. This loss dropped them into third place, behind Bay and North Olmsted.

The reserves followed their "big brothers" to the letter, as they were able to defeat Oberlin but lost to Rocky River.

"Poor Midview will die!" This was the hope of the twelve-piece band as they trouped into pep assembly playing the funeral march. It's doubtful that Leon Patry will ever forget the poker-faced Mr. Teagarden imitating our Student Council President. Nor will the student body forget how we laughed at the renditions of Mr. Houston, alias Principal Claggett, Mr. Dailey and his mandolin, or Mr. Demuth and his garbage bucket.

Two points spelled defeat for the Bees in the sectional tournament at Elyria, as the Midview Middies upset the overconfident Bees. The team overcame a first quarter cold spell only to lose in the jinxed fourth quarter.

Congratulations to our varsity basketball team for the best record Medina High School has ever chalked-up! An atmosphere of sportsmanship was evident throughout their season. The Bees finished third in the conference with a 10-4 record.

Applause should be given to the reserve team for a very successful 11-5 record. We congratulate them for a job well-done. Next year should be even better as we expect to see all of these hard-working guys back to defend our record in the Southwestern Conference.

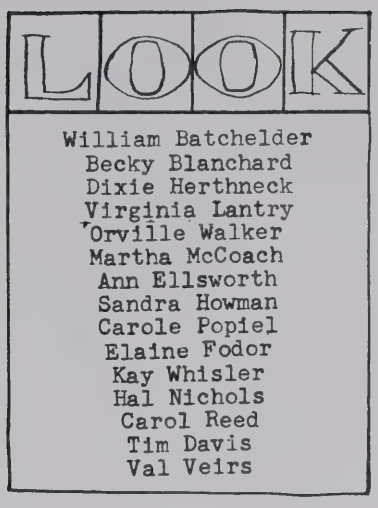
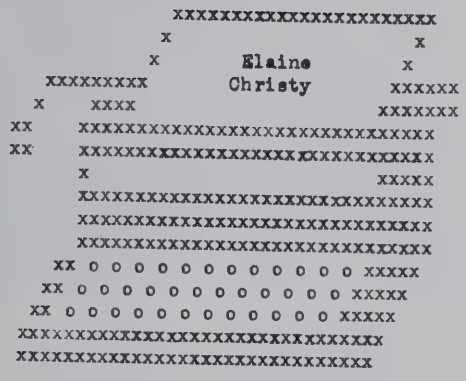
At home or away, there's no place like the kitchen; so we faked a bit to portray the custodians in a yummy atmosphere. Clockwise, we find Mr. Kovar, Mrs. Miller, Mrs. Rickert, Mr. Schipferling, Mr. Jacot, Mr. Lash, Mr. Wagner, Mrs. Jacot, and Mrs. Gienke.



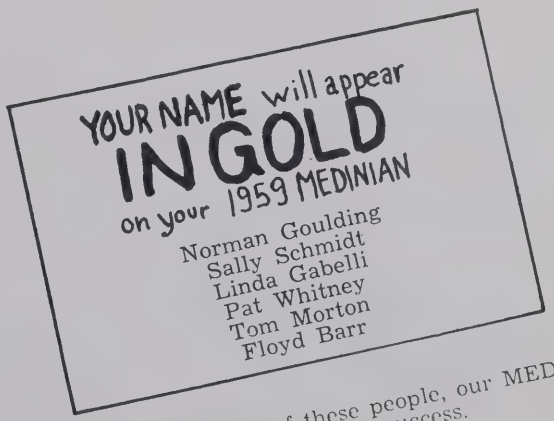
These fifteen homeroom salesmen did a fine job in the magazine campaign that helped finance our yearbook.



Our yearbook would never have been completed without the efficient help of Elaine Christy.

The talent of these three has helped to animate our yearbook.

Our shutterbugs flew in all directions.



Due to the efforts of these people, our MEDINIAN sales campaign was a big success.
